

The Royal Golden Eagle Medieval Archers and Knights

Guardians of the Longbow
London, England

established 1988

presented by

Roger Summers

The Royal Golden Eagle Archers perform one of the leading Medieval Archery Displays in the world with over thirty years experience.

We have worked in the film First Knight, shooting stunt fire arrows for Richard Gere, and acting as King Arthur's body guards for stars Sean Connery and Julia Ormond. And the new Ridley Scott's Robin Hood film starring Russell Crowe, Cate Blanchet and Vanessa Redgrave.

We have performed on The Famous Battlefield of Azincourt, Reims, Crecy, Lille France, Madrid Spanish TV, BBC TV, SKY ONE, CHANNEL 4; Children In Need - Elstree Studios, Quebec City Canada, The Tower of London, Warwick Castle, Ashby Castle, Arundel Castle, Nottingham Castle, Sudeley Castle, Herstomonseux Castle, Carisbrooke Castle - Isle of White, Caepphilly Castle - Wales, Battle Abbey - Hastings 1066, The Royal Gunpowder Mills, The City of London Corporation, Queen Elizabeth's Royal Hunting Lodge - Epping Forest.

The shows are very colourful with medieval music, costumes and banners. Throughout the shows you will see archery film stunts with explosive bombard arrows shot into the sky and over one hundred flaming fire arrows shot into the distance. An explosive and exciting display in front of very eyes. Fun for all the children and all the family.
